

The Waiheke Book Festival – Sunday High Tea – 6 November 3:00–5:30pm

Join us for the Festival Finale at The Boatshed Boutique Seaside Hotel

“One of the best examples of five-star laidback luxury in New Zealand”

Michael McHugh, Editor in Chief, Mindfood

Overlooking Little Oneroa beach and beyond to the Gulf

Enjoy a glass of bubbles, wander the outstanding kitchen garden

Enjoy a High Tea menu of flavours to delight

Enjoy Presentations:

Anah Dunsheath, one of New Zealand’s leading rare books & antiquarian experts

Laurence Fearnley reads from her NZ Fiction award winner, The Hut Builder

High tea includes glass of bubbly, seriously-good finger food, tea and coffee.

Getting There:

Catch the Fullers ferry to Waiheke. Visit the art gallery, then The Boatshed, or enjoy a wonderful day with gallery, Lunch with Peta at Mudbrick and The Boatshed finale. The programme finishes in time for you to depart for the 6.00pm ferry to Auckland.

The Boatshed Literary High Tea: $50 per person

Limited tickets; this event must be pre-booked. book@waihekebookfestival.co.nz

The Boatshed
WAIHEKE

www.boatshed.co.nz

www.waihekebookfestival.co.nz